Each week, there is a source sheet attached to guide your learning for the coming parsha. Each source sheet includes the following:

- List of key Rambans on the parsha, including a brief explanation of what issue the Ramban is discussing in each one. This list is based on the acclaimed pamphlet put out by Rabbi Fried of the Dallas Kollel (DATA).
- List of key Gur Aryehs on the parsha (the Maharal's commentary on Rashi), including a brief explanation of what issue the Maharal is addressing in each one. This list is based on the pamphlet assembled by Rabbi Yehoshua Hartman, who has written a commentary on nearly all of the Maharal's works.
- 5 Parsha Highlights, pointing out key sources, ideas, and books related to the parsha that are worth knowing and sharing with others.
- One foundational topic in Machshava related to the parsha, with an in-depth breakdown of the key relevant sources. Each foundational topic in machshava is accompanied by a source sheet with all of the sources cited in the outline.

At the end of each sefer a brief quiz on the major issues covered in the foundational sources will be given to all of the participants.
