

Korean TV Crew Visits Ponevezh Yeshiva

About the clip

This is an Israeli news clip of a Korean TV crew visiting Ponevezh Yeshiva. They are interested in the study of Talmud and how it has been instrumental in the development of Jewish intellect.

They observe that many Nobel prizes have been won by Jews and they attribute it to the study of Talmud.

Note that parts of the video are in Hebrew so you may need to explain some context to your teens.

The main message is in English.

Discussion Questions

- What conclusions about the study of Talmud does the TV crew make?
- What do you think the Koreans value so much about the Talmud?
- What do you think is the main goal of the study of Talmud?