

Latte and Learning – All Roads Pray to Yerushalayim

New England Spring Regional 2017

Rabbi Yehuda Halevi¹ – “My heart is in the East, and I am at the ends of the West”

What does it mean to focus on Yerushalayim and Israel, even if we are not currently there? In what practical ways can we implement this?

#1 Pirkei DeRabbi Eliezer - Chapter 35

(After the story of Yaakov having his dream on Har Hamorah):

Yaakov woke up in a great fright and said, ‘This is the house of the Holy One, Blessed be He’. From here you learn that whoever prays in Yerushalayim is considered as if he has prayed in front of the Heavenly Throne, for Yerushalayim is the gateway of heaven, and the door is open for Hashem to hear our prayers, as the verse says, ‘And this is the gateway of heaven’.

השכימ יעקב בפחד גדול ואמיר ביתו של הקדוש ברוך הוא במקום הזה, שנאמר [בראשית כח, יז] וירא ויאמר מה נורא המקום הזה. מכאן אתה למד שכיל המתפלל במקום הזה בירושלים כאלו התפלל לפני כסא הכבוד, ששער השמים שם הוא ופתחה פתוחה לשמווע תפלה, שנאמר [שם] וזה שער השמים

What do you think is the benefit of praying directly in front of the Heavenly Throne, as opposed to anywhere else?

#2 Melachim 1, Chapter 8 Verses 44-50 [Can skip if short on time]

[The following prayer was said by King Shlomo during the festive inauguration of the Beis Hamikdash, immediately after it was built]:

When Your people take the field against their enemy by whatever way You send them, and they pray to Hashem in the direction of the city which You have chosen, and of the House which I have built to Your name,

Oh, hear in heaven their prayer and supplication and uphold their cause.

When they sin against You—for there is no man who does not sin—and You are angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and their captors carry them off to an enemy land, near or far;

כִּי יֵצֵא עָמָק לְמַלְחָמָה עַל
אִיבּו בַּדָּרְך אֲשֶׁר תְּשַׁלַּח
וְהַתִּפְלֹלֹן אֵל יְקוּנָך דָּרְך הָעֵיר
אֲשֶׁר בְּחִרְתְּ בָה וְהַבֵּית אֲשֶׁר
בָנָתִי לְשֵׁמֶך: וְשַׁמְעַת הַשּׁמִים
אֵת חַפְלָתָם וְאֵת תְּחִנָּתָם
וְעִשְׂתָּת מְשֻׁפְטָתָם: כִּי יְחִטְאוּ לְךָ
כִּי אֵין אָדָם אֲשֶׁר לֹא יְחִטָּא
וְאַנְפַּתְ בָּם וְנִתְחַפֵּם לְפָנֵי אֹוֵב
וְשִׁבּוּם שְׁבֵיכֶם אֵל אָרֶץ
הָאֹוֵב רְחוֹקָה או קָרוֹבָה:

¹ 11th-12 century Spain. He is considered one of the greatest Hebrew poets, celebrated both for his religious and secular poems, many of which appear in present-day liturgy. His greatest philosophical work was The Kuzari.

And then they take it to heart in the land to which they have been carried off, and they repent and make supplication to You in the land of their captors, saying: ‘We have sinned, we have acted perversely, we have acted wickedly,’

And they turn back to You with all their heart and soul, in the land of the enemies who have carried them off, and they pray to You in the direction of their land which You gave to their fathers, of the city which You have chosen, and of the House which I have built to Your name—

Oh, give heed in Your heavenly abode to their prayer and supplication, uphold their cause, and pardon Your people who have sinned against You for all the transgressions that they have committed against You. Grant them mercy in the sight of their captors that they may be merciful to them.

וְהַשִּׁיבוּ אֶל לְבָם בָּאָרֶץ אֲשֶׁר נִשְׁבוּ שֵׁם וְשִׁבוּ וְהַתְּהִנְנוּ אֱלֹיךְ בָּאָרֶץ שְׁבִיכֶם לִאְמֹר חֲטֹאנוּ וְהַעֲוִינוּ רְשָׁעָנוּ: וְשִׁבוּ אֱלֹיךְ בְּכָל לְבָבָם וּבְכָל נְפָשָׁם בָּאָרֶץ אֲיַכְּהֶם אֲשֶׁר שִׁבָּו אַתֶּם וְהַתְּפִלְלוּ אֱלֹיךְ דָּרָךְ אֲרֹצָם אֲשֶׁר נִתְּחַתָּה לְאַבּוֹתֶם הָעִיר אֲשֶׁר בְּחִרְתָּה וְהַבִּתָּה אֲשֶׁר בְּנִיתָ בְּנִיתִי לְשָׁמֶךָ: וְשִׁמְעוּתָה הַשְׁמִים מִכּוֹן שְׁבָתָךְ אַת תִּפְלִתָּם וְאַת תִּחְנַתָּם וְעִשְׂתָה מִשְׁפָטָם: וְסִלְחָתָה לְעַמָּךְ אֲשֶׁר חָטָאוּ לְךָ וְלִכְלָל פְּשָׁעָיכֶם אֲשֶׁר פָּשָׁעוּ בָּךְ וְנִתְּחַתָּם לְרָחָםִים לְפָנֵי שְׁבִיכֶם וּרְחָמִים:

What types of prayer are referenced here? Why is there so much emphasis placed upon prayer during the inauguration of the Beis Hamikdash?

Think of the pasuk- “- כִּי בֵּית תְּפִילָה יִקְרָא לְכָל הָעִמִּים” – My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations” (Yeshaya 56:7). This is the very definition of the Beis Hamikdash- a house of prayer.

#3 Medrash Shir Hashirim Rabba, Chapter 4

Why is the Beis Hamikdash called by the name “Talpiot”? Because it is on a mountain (=teil in Hebrew) which all mouths (=piot in Hebrew) pray towards. From here, our rabbis have taught that those who stand outside the land of Israel and are praying should turn their face towards the Land of Israel. If they are standing in the Land of Israel, they should turn their face towards Yerushalayim and pray. If they are standing and praying in Yerushalayim, they should turn and face towards the Beis Hamikdash. If they are standing on the Temple Mount, they should turn their face towards the Holy of Holies. Therefore, those who are in the north (of Yerushalayim) are facing southward, those in the south are facing northward, those in the east are facing westward, and those in the west are facing eastward.

תלפיות, תל שמתפללים בו כל פיות, מכאן אמרו העומדים בחוץ לאָרֶץ ומתפלליין הופcin פניהם לאָרֶץ ישראל, שנאמר (מלכים א' ח') והתפללו אליך דרכ אָרֶץ, העומדים בארץ ישראל הופcin פניהם נגד כנגד ירושלים ומתפלליין, שנאמר (דברי הימים ב' ו') והתפללו אליך דרכ העיר הזאת, העומדים ומתפללים בירושלים הופcin פניהם נגד המקדש, שנאמר (מלכים א' ח') והתפלל אל הבית הזה, העומדים בהר הבית הופcls פניהם נגד קדשי הקודשים ומתפלליין, שנא' (מלכים א' ח') והתפללו אל המקומ הזה, נמצאו העומדים בצפון פניהם

Therefore, all of Israel are praying towards one place.

However, I only know that this is true when the Beis Hamikdash is still standing. How do I know that it applies even when it is destroyed? Rabbi Avin cites the verse ‘It is built for Talpiot’- this is referring to the Beis Hamikdash, which every mouth prays about. In Kriat Shema, we say a prayer of ‘The Builder of Yerushalayim’. In Shmona Esrei, we say a prayer of ‘The Builder of Yerushalayim’. In Birkas Hamazon, we say a prayer of ‘The Builder of Yerushalayim’. This shows that Talpiot means that Yerushalayim is the mountain which every mouth prays for. Therefore, Hashem will rebuild it in the future and rest His Divine Presence there.

לדרום, והעומדים בדרום פניהם לצפון, והעומדים במערב פניהם למערב, והעומדים במערב פניהם למזרח, נמצאו כל ישראל מתפלליין אל מקום אחד...עד כdon בבנינו, בחורנו מניין, אמר רבי אבין בוני לתפלות בו, בקריאת שמע הוא אומר מתפללות בו, בברכת ירושלים, בתפלה הוא אומר בונה ירושלים, בברכת המזון הוא אומר בונה ירושלים, הו שכל הפיות מתפלליין עליו לפניו הקדוש ברוך הוא, עתיד הוא לבנותו ולהשרות שכינתו בו

What is the difference between praying towards Yerushalayim and praying for the sake of Yerushalayim? How does it make you feel that your prayers are directed towards the same place and for the same purpose as those of each and every one of your fellow Jews? How does that impact your understanding of prayer in general?

Can you think of any other aspects of prayer in which we try and align our own prayers with those of the greater community?

#4 Noam Elimelech², Parshas Lech Lecha, Chapter 15 Verse 4

One who wants their prayers to be heard should concentrate their hearts as if they are praying in the Land of Israel, with the Beis Hamikdash built and the alter in its proper place, and behold, it is now considered as if he is currently living in the Land of Israel. Through this, a person comes to clarity and a complete connection to Hashem, to be able to pray with complete concentration, with fear and love, as if he is standing in the Holy of Holies.

ונמצא האדם הרוצה שתהא תפילתו נשמעת צריך לכוון כאלו הוא מתפלל בארץ ישראל ובבית המקדש בינוי ומזבח על מכוונו וביכלו והרי הוא כאלו דר עתה בארץ ישראל ועל ידי זה הוא בא לבahirות ודבוקות גמור להתפלל בכוננה שלימה ביראה ובאהבה כאלו עומד בבית קדשי קדשים

How do you think your prayer would change if you would imagine yourself standing in the Holy of Holies? In what other ways in our daily lives do we already utilize our very active imaginations?
